Vibrant • Colourful • Spectacular

Festivals

A celebration of life

At National School of Business, all festivals are celebrated with equal fanfare and gaiety. The management of the school actively encourages students to celebrate important festivals on the campus to promote cultural awareness, harmony and bonding among the students. The fact that our students hail from different parts of the country and the world add more variety and charm to the festivals celebrated at National School of Business.

Cultural Performances

Providing platforms for talent display

Life need not revolve around only academics and career. Every student is gifted with some talent and it's important for all students to nourish and nurture their talent for their all round development and to make their life meaningful. National School of Business, by regularly conducting various cultural and literary competitions, and by allowing its students to represent the school at inter-collegiate, inter-university and inter-state level cultural competitions, provides a huge support to the students to showcase their talent.

Cultural Performances

Ethnic Day

An opportunity to showcase ethnic culture

National School of Business is a perfect picture of unity in diversity. The school celebrates ETHNIC Day to give an opportunity for students coming from diverse ethnic backgrounds, states and countries to display their culture and traditions. On the Ethnic Day students come to the School in ethnic attire and participate in cultural performances that consist of ethnic dances, ethnic songs and fashion shows.

Sports Activities

For a Fit Body and an Agile Mind

Sports activities keep the body fit and mind agile. National School of Business offers facilities for indoor and outdoor sports such as chess, carom, cricket, football, basketball etc. The school regularly organizes sports tournaments to build competitive spirit among the students.

Outward bound activities

Helping students build attitude through experiential learning

Right from the inception, National School of Business has laid a strong emphasis on experiential learning. Adventure learning is a regular feature among NSB's list of academic activities. The students are taken to adventure spots and given hands-on learning experience through activities such as dry river crossing, river rafting, rappelling, rock climbing etc. These activities make drive the fear of risk away from students and make them more confident.

Student Senate

Empowering students by fostering leadership

National School of Business believes in student empowerment and keeping this in view has initiated many student-led activities. STUDENT SENATE is a student led activity and a unique initiative of National School of Business. The SENATE has been instrumental in the formation of many clubs such as:
